Seth and Teresa Myhre live in Minneota, MN with their five energetic children. Seth works with the Knights of Columbus, and Teresa teaches Spanish part time and directs her local high school musicals. When he can find the time, Seth enjoys hunting, wood-working and sports. Teresa's hobbies include reading, writing and theater. They are living proof that opposites attract! Together they enjoy traveling, dancing, socializing and spending time with family.

They recently celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary, and they consider their marriage to be one of the biggest blessings in their lives. Recognizing that strong, healthy marriages are integral to the fabric of society, they are committed to encouraging others in this vocation. They have served their local parish as marriage preparation facilitators for the past eight years, and are excited for this opportunity to grow and share with other couples.
